

NPO

GIRLS IN STEM AND LAW
DEVELOPMENT INITIATIVE
FIXING THE FUTURE ONE GIRL AT A TIME

NON-PROFIT ORGANISATION (334-625-NPO) 2025 / 857583 / 08

Vision:

The vision is to create a vibrant generation of self-sufficient and confident women, by empowering girls by means of developmental programmes through education and career development in STEM & Law fields

Main Objective of the Organisation

The Organisation aims to support, develop and empower schoolgirls to pursue and succeed in Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics (STEM) and Law careers. This shall be achieved through exposure, mentorship, educational programs, providing access to scholarships/bursaries, skills development, and advocacy initiatives. The focus will be aimed mainly towards disadvantaged learners.

Profile of the Organisation

Sector (s):

Education, Research and Development

Objectives:

Training and development Primarily at Secondary Education level and providing Support and career exposure at Tertiary level.

Service offering:

- ◇ Vocational training and guidance.
- ◇ Organising career days with practicing professionals.
- ◇ Access to Bursary and Scholarships.
- ◇ Work exposure to the various Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics and Law. careers.

Description:

Provision of vocational training, guidance, career counseling, testing, and related services, mainly aimed at High school girls.

The services will be orientated to help guide the learners towards a clear career path within the fields of Science, Technology, Engineering, Mathematics and Law.

This will be achieved through the organisations vast pool of practicing professionals spanning across fields such as Architects, Computer Scientist, Doctors, Engineers Lawyers, Pharmacists, Optometrists etc. within our networks which we are proud to state that more than 60% are women.

Contacts

T: 066 567 7997

E: sikosana.siyabonga@gmail.com

"The Organisation Chairman Mr AS Sikosana holds an LLB and a B.Sc.

Hons Degree in Hydrology. He is an Admitted Attorney of the High Court and is a professionally registered Scientist with over 15 years experience as a consultant for private & public clients, he is an industry recognised water resource planner. His most acclaimed recent appointments include being the Lead consultant for the National Action Plan for South Africa to the Limpopo Watercourse Commission for resolving water and environmentally related issues and was appointed by the Minister of Water and Sanitation as a member of the Independent Ministerial Investigative Panel looking into resolving the persistent water shortages in Giyani, Limpopo Province.

Mr Sikosana has been involved with developmental programmes with the specific aim of introducing and exposing school girls to science and engineering professions since 2016."

Ms E Mahlangu the Organizations' Secretary, is a well established public administrator and a professional Human resources practitioner with over 20 year

Social Engagements
Professional Exposure

Ga-Rankuwa, Alex to Durban
We engage 'em all